c) Demonstrate potential for research, both for theoretical production and guidance.
d) Have research experience at the undergraduate level, proven through the supervision of undergraduate thesis.
e) Have experience in coordination and/or teaching in lato sensu graduate programs.
f) Have fluency in the English language (foreign professors must demonstrate fluency in both English and Portuguese).
g) Present a research project in Education - subarea “Educational Technology,” compatible with the research line "Theory and Pedagogical Practice in Teacher Education."
h) Present a teaching plan for the subject in the “Educational Technology” subarea to be taught in the Graduate Program in Education.

Sole Paragraph: The required qualification must meet the legal requirement for recognition and/or validation.

Article 3. The candidate must provide evidence of their publication history in the field of Education, preferably on topics within the subarea of Educational Technology.

Article 4. The minimum obligations of the faculty member to be accredited in research activities at the Graduate Program in Education (PPGE) shall be as follows:

a) Develop and fulfill an Individual Work Plan annually.
b) Maintain an updated Lattes curriculum at least twice a year.
c) Participate in institutional research groups and projects.
d) Publish scientific works in Q1 journals or Qualis A1, A2.

e) Supervise, at least, 2 (two) undergraduate research projects (PIBICs), applying annually for scholarships to support this type of scientific initiation.

f) Maintain publication levels that meet the needs for the maintenance and enhancement of the PPGE’s level with CAPES, according to the Program's quadrennial evaluation form.

g) Maintain at least one ongoing research project.

h) Either be the coordinator of an ongoing project or annually submit a research project as a coordinator for funding calls, especially for CNPq’s Universal Call.

i) Conduct activities in undergraduate programs semiannually.

j) Either hold a productivity grant from CNPq (PQ/DT) or annually submit a project to CNPq's productivity grant in research call.

k) Teach, at least, two courses each academic year to Master's/Doctorate students in the PPGE.

l) Regularly attend PPGE and Undergraduate Course Board Meetings.

m) Annually engage in at least three internationalization activities, such as participation in overseas events, cotutelage projects, guidance of foreign students, serving as a member of panels in foreign universities, participating in international research groups, reviewing for foreign journals, publishing articles abroad in high-impact journals, international collections, and other research activities.

n) Undertake other activities according to the strategic interests of the PPGE.

REGARDING REGISTRATION

Article 5. Registration is free of charge and will be completed by sending personal and professional identification documents through the following link:

https://pucpr.co1.qualtrics.com/jfe/form/SV_3DBynJZnlQecAKO

First Paragraph: Candidates must submit the following documents in PDF format at the time of registration:

a) Registration through the link above containing the main identification information of the candidate.

b) A personal cover letter highlighting the candidate's interest and suitability for the position of research professor.

c) Foreign candidates must submit a complete academic curriculum, including certificates and diplomas from different levels of education.

d) Brazilian candidates must submit an updated Lattes curriculum, including certificates and diplomas from different levels of education.

e) Academic trajectory narrative of 10-20 pages, demonstrating the interrelation of Research, Teaching, and Extension activities, containing descriptions of participation in related Research project(s) in the field of Education. The narrative must also be properly documented.

f) Name and contact details for three references (including current position or activity, email, and telephone number).

g) 3-credit course syllabus for the subarea "Educational Technology" to be taught at the PPGE, containing: course name, syllabus, objectives, program content, methodology, assessment, and bibliographic references.

h) Research project in the field of Education, subarea Educational Technology.

i) Annex 1 duly completed, containing evidence of bibliographic scientific productions.

j) Declaration of adherence for black, indigenous, and quilombola candidates.
Second Paragraph: The documents indicated in the First Paragraph must be submitted by 6:00 PM on July 31, 2024.

SELECTION PROCESS

Article 6. Candidates will be selected through the assessment of the following modalities:
   a) Document verification;
   b) Evaluation of titles, scientific production, course syllabus, research project, and Lattes curriculum;
   c) Interview (in person or online).

Sole Paragraph: The selection process will be conducted sequentially and eliminatory. Candidates who do not meet the minimum requirements of Article 2 will be disqualified after the document verification stage. To proceed to the interview (item c), the candidate must have been approved in item b. The examining board will be composed of the Graduate Program in Education Coordinator, a representative from the Vice Presidency for Research, Postgraduate Studies, and Innovation, and two professors from the permanent faculty. The PPGE professors will be appointed by the Graduate Program in Education Coordinator.

EVALUATIONS AND INTERVIEWS

Article 7. Assessments and interviews will be conducted remotely, with the following considerations:
   a) Document verification and analysis of candidates' titles and production will be conducted by the Examining Board until August 15, 2024, through the assignment of a cumulative score, following the scoring criteria outlined in Annex 1 of this Call for Applications. Candidates approved in the title and production analysis stage will receive via email the link to participate in the interview.
   b) Interviews will be conducted in September 2024, with dates and times to be confirmed.
   c) The Examining Board will meet to rank candidates based on the evaluations obtained in all stages and the criteria established in this Call for Applications.

CLASSIFICATION

Article 8. The candidate who meets the provisions of this Call for Applications and achieves the best performance in the evaluation will be classified.

Sole Paragraph: In the event of a tie in the selection process evaluation, the final decision will follow the following criteria, in this order:

1. Faculty member of PUCPR;
2. Scientific production;
3. Proficiency in the English language;
4. Longer period of higher education teaching experience, counted in days;
5. Ethnoracial and social inclusion of candidates: black, indigenous, and quilombola individuals (Annex 3).
RESULT

Article 9. The result of the Selection Process with the name of the selected candidate for the vacancy outlined in this Call for Applications will be disclosed on the PPGE website www.pucpr.br/ppge.

First Paragraph: The result of the selection process will be final, with the decision of the Board being sovereign.

Second Paragraph: After the result is announced, the selected candidate must submit a formal declaration to the PPGE Secretariat within 2 (two) business days, committing to exclusively join the PPGE/PUCR as a permanent professor at the stricto sensu postgraduate level.

Third Paragraph: If the candidate is a PUCPR faculty member, belonging to the Teaching Career Staff, and is selected and belongs to a lower rank than the one specified in the Call for Applications, the placement as Adjunct I will be determined by PUCPR, subject to availability, at an opportune moment.

Fourth Paragraph: The selection of the candidate does not guarantee their call-up and hiring. The effective hiring of the candidate will be carried out in accordance with the rules of the CLT (Consolidação das Leis do Trabalho, Brazilian Labor Code) and will depend on authorization and call-up by the Human Resources Department of PUCPR.
